MH/11/2569 - Stolen Pony - Mildenhall area

Stolen overnight 3rd / 4th December from a paddock at a stable yard in Holywell Row near Mildenhall, 'Cookie' 2/3 year old 12.2hh Welsh Section A / Dartmoor cross mare.

Cookie is described as following:

Bright bay in full winter coat, black mane and tail, the mane being very distinctive as it is exceptionally long (to the point of shoulder) and the forelock has recently been trimmed square.

Distinctive markings include a small white spot / patch above the coronet band on the offside hind and a bite mark on the nearside hind; she also has a scar on her back. She has a dished face typical of a welsh pony.

Cookie is micro-chipped - No. 985101045173437

Cookie had recently been trimmed and is unshod. She can appear reserved with people she doesn't know.

Do you know the whereabouts of 'Cookie'? Has a pony fitting her description moved onto a yard or field near you? Please help us find her.

If you have any information call Suffolk Police on 101, or if you prefer to give information anonymously call CrimeStoppers on 0800 555 111
